

Our interview with Jane Beedle from The Great British Bake Off

Recently, we interviewed the famous baker Jane Beedle who featured on 2016's Bake Off. We talked to her about what it was like on the Bake Off and how she started baking.

We asked her what her experience was like on the on the Bake Off and she said that it was tiring and hard work but it was mostly fun and a laugh.

Jane told us that she still keeps in contact with the other contestants from the Bake Off. She said that they have a WhatsApp group chat and meet up often.

She told us that Mary Berry always told her kind things and the same cannot be said for Paul!

Then, we asked her, "What was your motivation to bake?"

She replied that she loves to see people enjoying food so she decided why not make it extra tasty by adding twists to make it unique, so that's what she did and that's how she began baking.

Our final question to Jane was: "What advice she would give to a young person who wants to aspire to be a cook or baker?"

She replied saying, "To never give up and always carry on. Even if your baking goes wrong it doesn't matter, you can always restart."

Thanks so much, Jane!

-Jemma and Joel, Year 8