

Kate Turner, Chair of Governors

Kate Turner. Kate is Chair of Governors and an ex secondary school teacher. She has three children who all previously attended The Holgate Academy. Kate works part time for a local marketing company. She is a volunteer for the local swimming club and her hobbies (when she isn't at Holgate!) are attending Rock Choir and the outdoor environment.

Paul Saint, Vice Chair of Governors

Paul is Vice Chair of Governors and previously worked for 37 years within the police and criminal justice areas and has extensive experience in business change, development, project management and performance improvement. He is a firm believer in the not only providing the best academic education possible for our youngsters, but in providing them with the life skills and ambition to seek and make the best of the opportunities and challenges that life offers. He is a resident of Hucknall and a former pupil of Holgate. He has five children, two of whom previously attended Holgate and one who is still a pupil.

Sue Tongue

Sue Tongue is H&S, GDPR Governor and the Complaints Governor. She recently retired from a long career with Nottingham City Council which included many years in senior positions in the City Treasurer's and Development departments and is a lifelong Hucknall resident. Sue is the treasurer and a trustee of Nottingham Women's Aid as well as Treasurer of the Hucknall Flower Arranging Group and the East Midlands Orchid Society. Her hobbies are flower arranging, visiting the theatre and reading. Sue is also enjoying the opportunity to travel since her retirement.

Trevor Clay

Trevor is an ex-pupil. Now retired from his post as Principal, Chesterfield College, Trevor lives in Hucknall and is also a Governor at New College Nottingham. He is the treasurer at Watnall Road Baptist Church and a trustee of Hucknall and District Voluntary Sector Partnership, helping with the food bank and furniture project based at Under One Roof on Vine Terrace. As well as these things he also finds time to play plenty of golf.

Julia Dickens

Julia's daughter is a student at Holgate and became a governor to become involved in the school and to use her experience to support the continuing improvements being made by the Leadership Team. She has worked as a Primary Teacher within Nottingham City schools for 17 years and has spent the last two years as a Head of School in Bulwell. Her passion is innovative teaching and learning to engage students and she understands the potential social and economic barriers to achievement. In her free time she enjoys travelling and watching live music.

Deborah Doyle

I have previously been a School Governor at a primary school. Deborah's son previously attended Holgate and she has a daughter in Year 8. She believes it to be important as a parent to put the time and effort into assisting the Academy reach their goals to enable the young people that they teach to become well rounded individuals who will find a valuable place in the community. As well as helping her husband with his training business she works for the Safeguarding Team for Notts Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust. She has been a governor previously at a local Primary school.

Helen Ridley

Helen is a parent with a child in Year 8 and works for Nottinghamshire Police in the role of Partnerships Officer, predominantly working with young people encouraging them to have high aspirations and to strive to be the best person they can. She brings a wealth of experience in volunteering to this role.

Gyongyi Klein

Gyongyi Klein is a mother of 2. She moved to Nottingham over 6 years ago. Her background is in supply chain covering purchasing, financial aspects, project management, which can be used in this role. She believes she can bring diversity to the governing board with fresh eyes as her children attended different schools. She was member of volunteers in a local church community providing weekly activities and summer camp for children between 3-14 years old. Her hobbies are reading, travelling to new places.

Andrea Chiarelli

Andrea Chiarelli is a Senior Consultant working in the field of higher education and research. He has extensive experience in management consulting, including stakeholder engagement across a wide range of communities, and is a Fellow of the Chartered Management Institute. Andrea studied in Italy, the USA and the UK: he is a firm believer that education is the 'great equaliser' and is an enabler of opportunities for people from every walk of life. He is committed to ensuring that the young generations can access the best possible learning experiences in a safe and mentally stimulating environment. In his free time, Andrea enjoys travelling, cooking and computer programming.

Heather Widdup, Senior Principal

Heather Widdup joined The Holgate Academy as Senior Principal in September 2019. Her previous role was as Principal of Retford Oaks Academy, leading the Academy to GOOD in all areas following its previous RI judgement. Heather was brought up and went to school in Nottingham so knows the area well, and she still spends a lot of her spare time at various sporting venues in and around the city. Heather is looking forward to working with Academy leaders to ensure that, as a minimum, The Holgate Academy is returned to its GOOD status in the very near future.

Matt Pennington, Principal

Matt Pennington is the Principal at Holgate Academy. His 20-year career in education has been firmly rooted in an empathetic and pastoral approach with a focus on academic progression for all abilities. Before moving to Nottinghamshire Matt was a Senior Leader in Merseyside predominantly focused on raising standards in Mathematics, a subject that he still believes can often be the key to raising aspiration and engagement. He moved to Nottinghamshire in 2016 with his wife and two young sons. He is an ex rugby player who hates to admit to supporting Everton Football Club but now enjoys running, tennis and the occasional round of golf.

Phil Bailey

Phil as a member of the local community and a former pupil of The Holgate School has been involved with the school for many years in his role providing technical and marketing support. He has been a governor at Holgate for nine years and enjoys the opportunity to challenge, support and promote the school to help raise the standards of education of pupils within the Hucknall community. Phil is Link Governor for careers.
